

ACT-IAC has recognized Allen Ashbey, a Director at OnPoint Consulting, with the organization's exclusive industry award for his leadership in creating a more effective and innovative government. Read the press release for more on the award.

Allen has a proven dedication to driving change in the public sector. Recently he has served as the Industry Chair for the 2014 ACT-IAC Management of Change Conference and was a graduate of the 2012 ACT-IAC Partners Program.

ACT-IAC is a nonprofit dedicated to advancing government through collaboration with industry to develop and share innovative strategies, effective and efficient solutions, and best practices.